TWO COLLECTORSHIPS TENTATIVELY DISPOSED

No Move Made to Press Proposals Until New Governor Is on Ground

Conceding that the governorship and the U. S. district-attorneyship are settled issues, leading Democrats are turning their attention to other offices in Hawaii and a movement is well under way to secure as much endorsement as possible for a "slate" that has been in process of framing for some weeks.

Among its features are the following suggestions:

For the supreme bench—Attorney K. M. Watson.

For the circuit bench—Attorney Clarence W. Ashford.

For the Maui circuit bench—Judge W. S. Collins.

For collector of customs—E. G.
Dunneberg.

For collector of internal revenue—D. G. Rivenburgh.

One of the Oahu senators, according to his fellow-Democrats, has been urging a combination such as the above, with perhaps a few changes, and seems to have enlisted a good deal of support.

No active move to press the slate will be made until the new governor arrives, for the Democrats believe that the next governor should be consulted with regard to the filling of offices here by appointment from Washington. It is possible that earlier action will be taken in case President Wilson or his cabinet heads should begin making changes here before the new governor is on the ground. It is not believed that these changes are likely.

Attorney Ashford has some support. It is rumored, for the supreme bench. A non-Democratic source of information in the Legislature, who is known to have known Ashford's name in Washington.

Bertman Rivenburgh, formerly secretary to the mayor, has been out of the political limelight for some months, having gone "back to the soil" as the superintendent of Kapiolani park. Rivenburgh stays pretty close to the soil these days and it is not known whether he is an active candidate for a collectorship.

HILLO RAILROAD GETS $200,000 HAUL CONTRACT

Signs with Philadelphia Company for Carrying Breakwater Stone from Kapoho

Under the terms of a contract signed in Washington two weeks ago, the Hilo railroad will haul for the Hilo breakwater 200,000 tons of rock from the Kapoho quarry at $1 a ton.

News of this big contract reached the Star-Bulletin indirectly from Washington and was confirmed today at the offices of the Hilo railroad in the Stangewald building. Though local representatives of the railroad have been notified that the contract was signed, the contract itself has not yet reached here.

Lorin Thurston, general manager of the railroad, Walter F. Dillingham and Governor Frear, the latter in a legal capacity, were all in Washington when the deal was completed.
The Breakwater Company of Philadelphia, which has the haul job, is the other party to the hauling contract.

The Kapoho quarry is owned by the Lyman estate and it is estimated that the Philadelphia concern will have to pay from 7 1/2 to 10 cents a ton royalty on the stone. Local contractors cannot figure how the total cost of putting the stone in place on the breakwater will come to much less than $2.75 a ton, and as the contract price with the government is for about 220,000 tons at $2.17, it can readily be seen that the eastern company is dropping a large amount of money.

Under the new arrangement effected by Ed Lord, president of the Lord-Young Engineering Company, Lord will assume the management on the Hilo job at once and handle it to completion. It is understood that the arrangement is such that the Lord-Young company is virtually assuming control.

ARTHUR SMITH "DISGUSTED" WITH FIGHT

Deputy Attorney-general Will Allow McDuffie to Explain Charges Made

AVERS INVESTIGATORS HAVE BROKEN CONFIDENCE

Peters Perfects Appeal of Kellett—Breckons May Be Witness Before Tribunal

Discouraged in his efforts to find evidence to substantiate the charges against Captain of Detectives Arthur McDuffie, declaring that "confidences have been broken with him by a person who has been active in the investigation," Deputy Attorney-general Arthur G. Smith stated this morning that he will in all likelihood give the suspended captain an opportunity to explain away the charges against him without appearing before the civil service commission.

"Disgusted" was the word used by Smith this morning to express his feeling on the recent developments in the case against the officer. He is now arranging to meet McDuffie, with the latter's attorney, E. C. Peters, and Sheriff Jarrett, to the end that they may all go over the charges. If Mc-Duffie is able to show that the charges against him are unfounded, Smith plans to drop them all.

The hearing of the charges before the commission has been set for Monday morning, and according to Peters they will either be heard at that time or be dropped. The hearing was postponed from today until Monday because Smith desired to have District Attorney Breckons present as a witness; not as an investigator, published reports to the contrary notwithstanding.

Kellett Appeal Made.
In the meantime Peters has perfected Detective Kellett's appeal, who was suspended a few hours before McDuffie. This was Kellett's last day to appeal. The notice reads as follows:

"Under the provisions of Section 2, Article 7, of the Rules and Regulations of the Honolulu Civil Service Commission John R. Kellett hereby gives notice of appeal, and does hereby appeal to said Honolulu Civil Service Commission from the decision of the sheriff of the city and county of Ho-lolu, of the 28th of October, A. D., 1913, suspending him from the position of sergeant of detectives."

Peters was too ill today to be at his office, but he sent word to the Star-Bulletin that he is perfectly willing to have McDuffie go over the charges with Smith.

"We are attempting to conceal nothing," he said. "I have informed Deputy Attorney Smith that I am perfectly willing to have him question Mc-Duffie at any time of day or night, alone or in my presence. He can go over the charges with McDuffie without me if he wishes."

Breckons no witness.
Smith said this morning that he would prefer to have all the parties to the case present.

"I sent a letter to District Attorney Breckons asking him to be a witness.
I thought perhaps he knew something about the optimum operations here, con-

MAYOR FERN IS AMONG JUBILANT WINNING GROUP

Banana Claimants Who Score a Victory Number 762—Get Cash Quickly

Seven hundred and sixty-two banana claimants may now join with Mayor Joseph Fern in a joyous Thanksgiving. That number of Honolulu citizens have the opportunity of receiving cash for their claims today, tomorrow or Saturday or just as soon as they choose to present their judgments to the commissioners now sitting in the senate chamber at the capitol building.

The commissioners began the issue of copies of the certified judgments at 10 o'clock this morning and in two hours had distributed just 113 of these to the property holders whose claims have been adjudicated. The auditor promptly issued warrants in return for these and the treasurer's office paid out cash for the warrants.
Up to noon the claimants had received about $5000 in cash. At this rate all the judgments will be distributed and the entire amount paid out of the appropriation, $36,000 in all, by the time the treasurer's office closes Saturday noon.

The commissioners will sit two hours this afternoon, from 2 to 4 o'clock, and the same hours will be observed Friday and possibly Saturday. Warrants drawn after noon Saturday cannot be cashed, however, until next week, as the treasurer's office closes at noon on Saturday.

Jeff McCarn Confirmed by Senate No Action is Taken on Pinkham

Senatorial Courtesy Delays Vote Until
Sen. John Sharp
Williams is Present

[Special Star-Bulletin Cable]

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov.
6.—Jeff McCarn of Nashville, Tenn., is now United States district attorney for Hawaii, the senate confirming his appointment today.

No action on the appointment of L. E. Pinkham as governor was attempted, as Senator John Sharp Williams, who is opposing Pinkham, was absent and the senate wishes to wait until he is here to present his views.
C. S. ALBERT.

HAWAII'S NEW DISTRICT ATTORNEY A PICTURESQUE FIGURE AND A FIGHTER

Jeff McCarn, Hawaii's new district attorney, is a picturesque and forceful figure, a brilliant speaker, a great criminal lawyer and a fighter from the ground up. He is a toe to organized vice, an ardent prohibitionist and a reform leader.

Thus is he characterized in the press of Tennessee. The Star-Bulletin has received newspaper clippings telling in detail of McCarn's life and his splendid work as a public official.
The Nashville Tennessean says of him:

Jeff McCarn, a familiar figure in politics below the Mason & Dixon line, boasts a most interesting past as is attested by the newspapers of the state of his adoption and the state of his father's nativity. The following from the Nashville Tennessean gives a clear insight into the manner in which Hawaii's new district attorney handles difficulties that may threaten to obstruct his path:

Credit for the initial step in the movement for reform in Davidson county may be justly attributed to others, but the friends of law enforce-

Prominent Chinese A Unit in Favor of A Militia Company; Full Strength Sure

"The Chinese-Americans of Honolulu have a unique opportunity to establish a new record for efficiency and patriotism in connection with the national guard. The Chinese company now in process of organization, should be one of the crack organizations of the local militia and with prominent Chinese citizens behind the movement success seems assured."

This is the opinion of Brigadier-general Frederick Funston, the head of the regular army on Oahu, in regard to the All-Chinese company for the National Guard of Hawaii, which has been proposed within the last few days. Department headquarters is solidly behind the movement, and several conferences with regard to the commissioned and enlisted personnel have been held. With both militia and regular army officers the opinion prevails that the Chinese company has a chance to set top marks for efficiency and smart soldier-

NEW FRANCHISE BILL ACCEPTABLE TO R. T. COMPANY

Copies of the latest franchise bill of the Rapid Transit Company have reached here, and, according to an unofficial statement from officials of the street-railway company, the measure now meets their approval.

The new bill is H. R. 9022, introduced on October 23 in behalf of Delegate Kalaniana'ole, and has been referred to the committee on territories.
The bill introduced the previous month. It will be remembered, was found to have an "added section" which the street-railway company could not accept, as it placed repeal of the franchise in the hands of the territorial legislature at almost any time.

As the bill now stands, it is believed to conform in every particular to the form of the grant as it was approved by the legislature last spring, and as such, is acceptable to the Rapid Transit Company.

The Merchants' Association has received acknowledgement of its resolutions sent to Congress urging early action on the bill.

Jeff McCarn, whose nomination as U. S. district attorney was confirmed by the senate today.

ment accorded the glory of its achievement to the unabated efforts of Jeff McCarn. Moved by an almost unrational passion for "right" in the sense of respect for law and its enforcement, McCarn took up the fight against gambling and Sunday tipping when it was the most unpopular thing a man could do from the standpoint of a politician. Sustained by a tenacity inherited from a long line of Scottish ancestors, he held out against abuse and obstructive tactics until "right" triumphed and violation of the law was reduced to a minimum, and now that the victory seems assured, he presents himself as a candidate for attorney-general under the unique circumstance of having accomplished before hand the same result that the reform candidate usually promises for the future.

Unique among candidates he is also

SAYS WILSON'S PROBE MAY TEND TO UNCERTAINTY

Letter from Large Financial House Brings Reports on the Threatened Investigation

How the business and financial situation is judged by the men in the large financial centers is given briefly in a letter received by one of the large financial houses of Honolulu from its New York correspondent. This letter is given in full and is as follows:

"October 23rd, 1913.
Gentlemen:—Since writing you last month the course of bond prices has been rather irregular without any pronounced tendency in either direction.

Some issues, largely higher grade bonds, show small advances, while others are somewhat off in price. The demand for investments does not seem as good as it was. In many instances it is found that the demand is only for a very few bonds and if an attempt is made to sell a block of any size the bid price frequently falls away.

"Our local money market remains decidedly easy for this period of the year, call money just now ruling about 3 1/2 per cent and time money from 4 1/2 per cent to 5 per cent. If the banks can control the situation for another month, as now seems probable, the crop-moving season should pass off very easily without any particular stringency. It is probable that if necessary we could draw gold from Europe as foreign exchange rates in the last few days have declined practically to the import point. If it were not for the more urgent demands in London evidenced by the recent raise in the Bank of England rate, it is likely that engagements of gold shipments to this side would have been made before now.

"The tariff bill as a source of uncertainty has now been removed but the results from its enactment are of course still problematical. A disquieting note for businessmen was the announcement made last week that the secretary of commerce for an investigation into the acts of manufacturers who may close their factories or reduce wages on the plea that such retrenchment is made necessary by the enactment of the new tariff law. Such an investigation would probably be a very unsettling matter."

Physicians have begun a course of lectures on sex hygiene in the Chicago schools.

His Honor Now Hesitates to Sign A Proclamation For Feast Day

Alack the day, if Honolulu will be obliged to eat the turkey on the 27th of November without a Thanksgiving proclamation from a local high official.
Governor Frear being out of the territory, and Attorney-general Thayer feeling that he is not in a position to issue one, the honor has devolved upon the head of Mayor J. J. Fern, who hasn't been able to make up his mind whether or not he will meet the situation—rise to the occasion and set forth in writing a Thanksgiving proclamation.

One has already been prepared for His Honor to set his name and seal to, but so far it remains unsigned, his honor being dubious about proclamations. He called on P. L. Weaver, first deputy city and county attorney this morning, to be informed of his legal rights; and after the conference he said that it is possible that he will issue the very much needed proclamation later.

Many who would never be able to enjoy the turkey Thanksgiving day without a proclamation are urging his honor to issue one; and maybe he will. It would, no doubt, be terrible to kill so many turkeys for the occasion and not have the massacre sanctioned, in a way, by a proclamation.

AUSTRALIA SENDING BUTTER TO HONOLULU

Two large shipments of Australian butter have come into Honolulu since the new tariff law, reducing the duty on that commodity from 6 to 2 1/2 cents per pound, went into effect and Food Inspector and Chemist A. W. Hanson announced today, after examination of these, that both shipments are slightly below standard, although wholesome and by no means injurious.

The shipments are from the New Zealand Dairy Association and the Maile Creamery, of New Zealand.
Hanson finds the product innocent of preservatives, which are always objectionable, and to be ordinarily good.
He says, however, that they contain about 2 percent too much water and are about 1 1/2 to 2 percent too low in butter fat. This means that while it is not quite as nutritious as standard butter should be, it is in danger of spoiling quickly, the presence of water being responsible for that.

Announcement is made that the delicateness sale which was to have been given on Saturday of this week by the members of the Kunalu Boating Club, has been postponed until December 6.

mands made by the United States.

[Associated Press Cable]

BERLIN, Germany, Nov. 6.—That the German government is preparing for what may be an international crisis in Mexican waters was indicated today when orders were made public for the battleships Kaiser and Koenig Albert and the cruiser Strassburg to depart early in December for a "test voyage" to South American waters.

The German papers point out significantly that the vessels will evidently be available for Mexican service.

Indianapolis Under Martial Law; U. S. Taking a Hand

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Nov. 6.—With the entire city in the grip of the street-car strikes, traffic brought to a standstill and much business blocked, rioting became so bad last night that Governor Hulsizer was appealed to and responded by declaring martial law for Indianapolis.

He has ordered out the entire state militia and the city will be guarded like a military stronghold and patrolled until something like order is restored.

BRUTE ESCAPES WITH SENTENCE OF SIX MONTHS

Accused of beating his niece and dragging her around the yard by the hair while he was in a drunken rage, Adam Kealakal, a Hawaiian, was found guilty by a jury in Circuit Judge Robinson's court this morning and sentenced to six months' confinement at Oahu prison.

Annie Baker, the niece, testified that on the evening of September 6 she rushed into Kealakal's house to the assistance of his young daughter, whom she said he was torturing and who called for her aid. She said he then turned on her, locked the door and started to beat her. Managing to unlock the door, she said she ran out into the yard pursued by the intoxicated man, who caught her by the hair and began dragging her around.

Mrs. G. J. Boisse and Mrs. Mary K.
Judd, neighbors, testified that they ran to her assistance, drove Kealakal away and with the aid of John Noble, removed her to her own home. She was later taken to the Queen's hospital, where the attendance of a physician was required. Kealakal in defense declared the young woman came into his home an attacked him, and that he was acting only in his own defense. He denied the hair-dragging episode.

In accordance with the recent decision of the supreme court which reversed his decree in the case of Julia Gomes and others against the Sociedade Lusitana Beneficente de Hawaii and Maria Pereira, Circuit Judge Robinson today filed judgment, decreeing that the plaintiffs, six in number, shall recover from the defendants the sum of $700, together with the costs of the actions in the circuit and supreme courts. The money is to be paid out of the death benefit of Manuel Silva Pereira, out of the division of which the litigation grew. The total costs to be recovered by the plaintiffs amount to $182.35.

Ye Chung and a Hawaiian couple will face trial before a jury in Judge Robinson's court on a statutory charge. The circumstances alleged, which resulted in the indictment of the trio, are said to be that the Ha-sold their daughter, a girl less than 14 years old, to Ye Chung. He is said to have paid them a stipulated monthly sum for the girl, whom he kept to all light and purpose, as his slave.

The Magazine club at the Y. M. C. A. of schools, has been elected president of the organization.
